Training camp is very important part of preparation for the season for every team. That's why it is very crucial that the camp is planned and organized in professional way considering all the details and clubs requirements. Service, hotel food, quality of football pitches and friendly matches – are key factors for the teams preparation. For me as a coach those factors are very important. We work with SR9 Event Management company for few years and they always do all in the best possible way. Thanks for top service!
